

27th PRACTISING HISTORICAL GEOGRAPHY

24th November 2021 and 26th January 2022
12:00 noon – 3pm GMT

First Circular: Provisional Programme

This year's Practising Historical Geography theme is: International Historical Geographies. Each day of the Conference will have a Keynote Lecture, followed by a Historical Geography Workshop, and a Panel on 'Teaching Historical Geography'.

Approaches, methods, and practices will be discussed in these sessions. Like in past years, we will also have postgraduate reflections on their historical geography research as well as presentations by HGRG dissertation prize winners 2021.

In an attempt to ensure that as many historical geographers are able to attend, these two sessions will be run without registration fee to delegates. To ensure that these sessions run in a safe manner, we ask that only people who are registered attend.
