

JOURNAL OF LATIN AMERICAN GEOGRAPHY

1 February to 1 March is Black History Month

Since its inception over 20 years ago, the Journal of Latin American Geography has published a number of articles on the colonial and racialized histories of Latin America, their manifestations and implications, and struggles for racial justice, all over the region and amongst its diaspora. In celebration of Black History Month, and to ensure that researchers and readers have full access to this scholarship, JLAG is making a selection of relevant articles open access via Project Muse during this month.
